2:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. - AMELIE (2001) (French,with subtitles)

Jean-Pierre Jeunet directs this whimsical fairy-tale-like comedy, winner of multiple international awards, and considered a French classic! Audrey Tatou plays the title character, who lives in a world of her own making, discreetly orchestrating the lives of the people around her, while solving a mysterious stranger's identity. The movie celebrates eccentrics, and the little details of life -- of how love and caring are at the center of all happiness, and how our lives can be changed by kindness and by chance (and there's a hysterical "almost-sex-scene"). Filmed in Paris, the city of romance (in 2010, American Cinematographer named it Best Shot Film of the Decade), its beautiful settings and charming characters carry Amelie on her journey from isolation to joie devivre, and love.

5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. - MY FAIR LADY (1964)

One of the greatest film musicals ever made! Directed by George Cukor, with Audrey Hepburn, Rex Harrison, and the biggest star of all... restored Technicolor!! This adaptation of the 1954 stage musical, based on George Bernard Shaw's 1913 play, Pygmalion, based on the Greek myth of the same name (whew!), is the perfect storm of story, romance, costumes, sets, unforgettable songs, and the comedy of the male ego! It won eight Academy Awards, including Best Picture, Best Actor, and Best Director, and is on many critics' Top-100-Films list. You won't be the only one smiling and humming at least one of Lerner and Loewe's wonderful songs as the credits roll. (NOTE: Director Gabriel Pascal originally owned the exclusive film adaptation rights to the G.B.Shaw play.)

We will serve hot pizza during a 30-minute break between the two movies, and during a 15-minute intermission in the second film. Vegetarian and non-vegetarian; $2.00 per

The Work of Byron Katie, Session I

Sunday, March 15 · 2:00 – 5:00pm at the Circle Center.
Workshop: Meher Baba on Mind and The Work of Byron Katie presented by Anne Haug

"This whole creation is the result of imagination, the outcome of the mind. It is the mind which binds you and it is the mind which is also the means of your freedom."
Meher Baba

Baba says God-realization occurs when the unconscious is made fully conscious. Jungian psychology tells us that it is the nature of the unconscious to project and that once a particular projection is made conscious, that projection ceases. Self-inquiry is a process that helps us to systematically withdraw and integrate our mind's negative projections through growing awareness of what it is that we have been unconscious of inside ourselves. We gain self-knowledge through utilizing projections as mirrors of our inner state. Through the regular practice of self-inquiry, we come to realize more and more that the world we have projected is all for our awakening. It takes time and patience to wear out old habits and patterns of thinking, but it is well worth the effort. The outcome is a growing experience of a kinder and gentler way of living.

Workshop overview:

*Review of The Work of Byron Katie together with Baba's corresponding words on the mind

*Inquiry practice through a group facilitation on a universal belief

Wednesday, March 18 · 2:00 – 3:30pm at the Circle Center.

Inquiry Circle: One inquiry circle is on the calendar~Wednesday, March 18, 2-3:30 p.m.~where we come and practice the work, have discussion and Q&A. If there is enough interest, we could have a weekly inquiry circle on Wednesday afternoons.

Preparation:

There are many free resources on www.thework.com that you can review before the workshop.

In addition, Jeff Stearns has a loaning DVD through The Circle Center on The Work called Turn It Around.

For avid readers, I highly recommend Byron Katie's book Loving What Is. She calls it the textbook for The Work and it is much more thorough than the audios by the same name.

You can also watch the presentation I gave last April at

The Circle Center.

To know more about me, visit my website www.kindreality.com. I will be offering sessions for individuals at no charge throughout the months of March and April. ## ACA Meetings

Every Saturday 9:30 – 10:30am at the Circle Center.

Adult Children of Alcoholics (ACA) is a Twelve Step, Twelve Tradition program of men and women who grew up in alcoholic or otherwise dysfunctional homes. The ACA program was founded in the belief that family dysfunction is a disease that affected us as children and affects us as adults. Our membership also includes adults from homes where alcohol or drugs were not present; however, abuse, neglect or unhealthy behavior was. We meet to share our experience and recover in an atmosphere of mutual respect. We discover how alcoholism and other family dysfunction affected us in the past and how it influences us in the present. We begin to see the unhealthy elements of our childhood. By practicing the Twelve Steps, focusing on the ACA solution, and accepting a loving Higher Power of our own understanding, we find freedom. Moderated by Denny Moore.
