The Work of Byron Katie, Session I

Sunday, March 15 · 2:00 – 5:00pm at the Circle Center. Workshop: Meher Baba on Mind and The Work of Byron Katie presented by Anne Haug

"This whole creation is the result of imagination, the outcome of the mind. It is the mind which binds you and it is the mind which is also the means of your freedom." Meher Baba

Baba says God-realization occurs when the unconscious is made fully conscious. Jungian psychology tells us that it is the nature of the unconscious to project and that once a particular projection is made conscious, that projection ceases. Self-inquiry is a process that helps us to systematically withdraw and integrate our mind's negative projections through growing awareness of what it is that we have been unconscious of inside ourselves. self-knowledge through utilizing projections as mirrors of our inner state. Through the regular practice of self-inquiry, we come to realize more and more that the world we have projected is all for our awakening. It takes time and patience to wear out old habits and patterns of thinking, but it is well worth the effort. The outcome is a growing experience of a kinder and gentler way of living.

Workshop overview:

*Review of The Work of Byron Katie together with Baba's corresponding words on the mind

*Inquiry practice through a group facilitation on a universal belief

*Guidance in completing a Judge-Your-Neighbor worksheet on someone in your family of origin-father, mother, sister, brother

(We will not work on community members in our sessions.)

*Pairs take turns as client and facilitator

*Closing comments, Q&A

Two workshops are on the calendar-Sundays, March 15 and April 19, 2 to 5 p.m. You are welcome to attend one or both. One does not necessarily build upon the other.

Please bring a notebook and pen with you.

Retired NY policeman looking to move back to Myrtle Beach.

Looking for temporary or long term rental under $900. He is here now.

there is enough interest, we could have a weekly inquiry circle on Wednesday afternoons.

Preparation:

There are many free resources on www.thework.com that you can review before the workshop.

In addition, Jeff Stearns has a loaning DVD through The Circle Center on The Work called Turn It Around.

For avid readers, I highly recommend Byron Katie's book Loving What Is. She calls it the textbook for The Work and it is much more thorough than the audios by the same name.

You can also watch the presentation I gave last April at The Circle Center.

Saturday, March 21 · 1:00 – 4:00pm at the Circle Center.
WADJDA (2013)

Haifaa al Mansour, Saudi Arabia's first feature film director, modeled this story on her experiences growing up in that country's restrictive religious culture. In some towns, bicycles and a young girl's virtue don't mix! But Wadjda rolls her eyes like any young teen, and sets her mind to win the Koran competition and its cash prize. Through her engaging subversiveness, we observe social laws forcing family to put religious dogma before love and happiness. The dusty streets of Riyadh cannot stop everyday people's self-determined hope, and change, no matter the cost. How this moving and fascinating film was made, by a woman director (!), in a country where cinemas are banned, will be explored in the "making of" documentary after the film. Presented by Christina Mehera Riley.

of messages (including Meher Baba's Call). The section we refer to as "How to Love God" was given as the last section of the first part of two initial messages. As such, it is part of a larger message, and part of a series of messages, and part of an event with many other messages, including Meher Baba's opening words: "Not as man to man, but as God to God, I bow down to you, so as to save you the trouble of bowing down to Me." "To make you all share My feeling of being one with you and one of you, I sit down beside you."

Though not given as a stand-alone message, it has become common to print the "HTLG phrases" separately. These phrases can be read as a directive for daily living, and also as a personal response from God to those who would ask that titular question. Its wordings seem as meant for both explicit instruction and subjective application – indicative of the value of thoughtful awareness to our more subjective motivations and complex actions as we seek to develop morally, and on a spiritual path / journey to finding God.

This discussion event will be facilitated to ensure all can participate, but mostly it will be round-the-room discussion following the progression of the HTLG message. We will sit beside each other and share our insight and understanding. Please bring your own copy of the How To Love God message, which can be obtained at Sheriar Bookstore. Please read the message before the event, and please be prompt to the event. Presented by Christina Mehera Riley.

Poetry of Hafiz, Rumi, and Tracey Schmidt

Saturday, May 16 · 3:00 – 4:30pm at the Circle Center.
Performed by Tracey Schmidt with Cliff Hackford on tabla.

Tracey Schmidt is an award-winning poet and performer whose work has been published in numerous journals and anthologies. She has performed poetry around the country, at TED-X, and currently teaches creativity, poetry, and photography in such facilities as the NC Center for the Advancement of Teaching, Julia Cameron's Creativity Camp, the JC Campbell Folk School, and in her hometown of Asheville, NC. Her performances were inspired by Meher Baba.

Her book of poetry, I Have Fallen in Love with the World, Turtle Dove Press, 2011, was published to rave reviews, as well as a CD of the work of Rumi, Hafiz, and her own poetry. She has facilitated poetry writing around the country: in schools, prisons, to adults, and those on a healing journey.

Her award-winning touring museum exhibit, The Awakening of Turtle Island: Portraits of Native Americans opened for the Olympics in 1996, won the Regional Designation Award in the Humanities, and has toured over 18 museums and cultural centers in the Southeast.

She attended the prestigious Portfolio Center in Atlanta, where she won numerous awards for her work. More of her work, touring schedule and classes can be seen at www.traceyschmidt.com.

She has fallen in love with the world. She is still not sure how it happened.

ONGOING EVENTS

ACA Meetings

Every Saturday 9:30 – 10:30am at the Circle Center. Adult Children of Alcoholics (ACA) is a Twelve Step, Twelve Tradition program of men and women who grew up in alcoholic or otherwise dysfunctional homes. The ACA program was founded in the belief that family dysfunction is a disease that affected us as children and affects us as adults. Our membership also includes adults from homes where alcohol or drugs were not present; however, abuse, neglect or unhealthy behavior was. We meet to share our experience and recover in an atmosphere of mutual respect. We discover how alcoholism and other family dysfunction affected us in the past and how it influences us in the present. We begin to see the unhealthy elements of our childhood. By practicing the Twelve Steps, focusing on the ACA solution, and accepting a loving Higher Power of our own understanding, we find freedom. Moderated by Denny Moore.

Far Side Cinema

Every Tuesday at 8:00pm - 9:30pm at The Circle Center. The Far-side Cinema is a forum of exploration and education...thinking outside of the box. True education is: "Giving people information and teaching/allowing them to think for themselves." In this age, the dawning of the age of Intuition, Meher Baba's "Great Awakening" is upon us -this is a struggle of the forces of Light and Dark. DARKNESS: Energy that wants to suppress and control. Whereas, LIGHT: Breaks the structures of power and sets the imprisoned energies free.

The question posed is "What does the New Humanity look like in the various institutions we now have". Areas of inquiry: Financial, Geopolitics, Exo politics, Free Energy, Secret Space Program, Health and Well-being - through the filter of the Spiritual,the Bottom Line.

The phenomenon of Q Anon will be tended to.

The seeking of Truth is at the forefront of our endeavors AND the "tying of our camels", as it were, also.

Baba has said "It is sufficient to, hold on to My Daaman, and to repeat my name"- My name has power "to keep your connection to Me".

AND here at the Far Side Cinema for those "with eyes to see and ears to hear", in an non-judgmental atmosphere seek to ease, with understanding, these tumultuous months and years of the: "Transition" "The Ascension" "The Event" "The Great Awakening" "Meher Baba's Manifestation"- "the ending of a cycle of Cycles".... and that which has never happened before...the cobra is about to pass through the room.....

We end our meetings with "The Light" meditation by Jackie Boyce. and go in Peace.

Your host: Don McBride, FarSideCinema@gmail.com, Cel, 843-333-7770 Co-host: Judy Panarello

Effort and Grace & Light Meditation are two programs that alternate Sunday Evenings. See Calendar for exact dates & times.
